Confession of Faith and Covenant

OF THE

Congregational Church

IN PITTSFIELD.

Confession of Faith.

WE believe that there is one God, self-existent, eternal, infinitely perfect and glorious, unchangeable in his being and perfections; the Creator and owner of all things, and the Sovereign of the Universe.

That this one God subsists, in a manner at present mysterious to us, as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, three in one and one in three.

That God has revealed his will to mankind in the Bible, which was given by his inspiration, and which is the only sufficient and unerring rule of faith and practice.

That God created our first Parents in his own image, perfectly holy and happy; but that in consequence of their sin, all their posterity are born with corrupt or depraved hearts, so that they become sinful and exposed to the wrath of God forever.

That God of his own sovereign grace, has devised a scheme for our redemption, by which the exercise of mercy is made consistent with the maintenance of justice, and with the honor of his government.

That the Son of God, the eternal word was made flesh, or became man, and by his death upon the cross, is the propitiation for the sins of the world, and that he arose from the dead and is seated at the right hand of God the Father, being invested with all power in heaven and on earth.

That every one who believes in the name of Jesus Christ, or who receives him as he is offered in the Gospel, is pardoned and restored to the favor of God, however numerous and great may have been his sins.

That all who truly believe in Jesus Christ, are entitled to everlasting life, and will assuredly according to the divine promise be kept, through faith and holiness, unto salvation.

That man is so depraved, that he will not repent and believe in Jesus Christ, unless by the spirit of God a new heart is given him, a heart to love the Lord his God supremely.

That no sinner, by any thing which he does, lays God under any obligation to grant him his regenerating grace ; but that God bestows this gift in a free and sovereign manner, having mercy on whom he will have mercy.

That believers tho' delivered from the curse are bound to yield a perfect obedience to the divine law, and are therefore sinful in all the defects of their holy exercises.

That Jesus Christ has a church in the world, and that among his institutions, he has appointed Baptism and the Lord's supper, to be re-eived by all who cordially believe in him and make profession of their faith, and that the infant children of such, are proper subjects of baptism.

That there is appointed a day of judgment, at which period, Jesus Christ will raise the dead and judge the world, and will doom the wicked to everlasting destruction, and receive the redeemed to the happiness and glory of his eternal kingdom.

The Covenant.

As we consider ourselves to be under great and indispensable obligations to confess Jesus Christ before men, and to unite with his visible church on earth ; We do now enter into covenant with this Church ; we do renounce all the ways of sin and publicly and solemnly devote ourselves to the Lord our God, taking his word to be our rule of faith and practice, receiving the Lord Jesus Christ as our teacher and Saviour, and relying for sanctification upon the influences of the holy spirit. We promise to attend constantly upon the institutions of the gospel, to maintain family and secret prayer, present our children for baptism and to bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the word ; to commemorate as we have opportunity the death of our Saviour in the supper ; to assemble for the worship of God on the Lord's day ; to keep the sabbath holy, and to maintain and submit to the discipline of Christ's house, according to the rules of his word.

And we finally promise, diligently to promote the interests of the religion of Christ our Lord, and particularly to recommend it to others by presenting in our own lives, an example of justice, temperance, beneficence, and Godliness.

Relying on the aids of the Divine Spirit, we do now make these solemn engagements in the presence of God, of angels and of this congregation.

Declaration of Admission.

We then, the Church of Christ, do receive you into full communion, promising to conduct towards you as becometh saints and to watch over you with christian affection, praying God that both you and we, may be at last presented faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy. AMEN.
